

NTUE Directive on International and Cross-Strait Relations Committee

Passed upon the 107th Administrative Meeting, dated Jun. 25th, 2014

Passed upon the 112th Administrative Meeting, dated Nov. 26th, 2014

- A. In order to promote the international and cross-strait collaboration and exchange of academic ideas, establish relevant review systems and encourage an international learning environment, National Taipei University of Education (hereafter referred to as “the University”) herewith sets forth to establish the NTUE International and Cross-Strait Relations Committee (hereafter referred to as “the Committee”).
- B. The Committee shall consist of 11 to 13 members. This shall include the President, the Vice President, the Head of Academic Affairs, the Head of Student Affairs, the Head of R&D, the Secretariat, the Head of Continuing Education, the Head of Continuing Education, the Head of the College of Humanities and Arts, the Head of the College of Science are the designated committee members, with an additional option of 1 to 3 external members. Committee members shall serve for 1 academic year, which shall be extended upon renewal.
- C. The Committee shall be responsible for the following:
- (1) Set forth the directive on international and cross-strait collaboration and exchange of academic ideas and education related affairs.
 - (2) Promote and organize the international and cross-strait collaboration and exchange of academic and educational affairs.

(3) Review the Collaboration and Exchange Contracts on international and cross-strait collaborations and exchanges.

(4) Promote international and cross-strait collaborations and exchanges.

(5) Other international and cross-strait collaborations and exchanges related reviews and consultations.

D. The committee shall be called and chaired by the President.

E. The committee is required to hold at least 1 meeting per semester, additional meetings may be called, during such meetings, the relevant personnel may be asked to present or submit information for consideration.

F. The administrative management of the committee shall be dealt with by the R&D Office.

G. After being passed during the Administrative Meeting, the Guideline shall be submitted to the President for review before being implemented.